MODERN KITCHENS

Modern kitchens offer endless possibilities for creating a stunning interior statement, with an extensive range of styles, colours, and finishes.

To create a timeless design experts recommend using natural materials like wood and stone as accents, keeping a neutral colour palette, and incorporating clean lines-particularly through handleless cabinetry that creates a sense of space and sophistication.

Ridgeway Interiors specialises in contemporary kitchen designs, featuring high-quality German brands Häcker and Nobilia that combine precision engineering with the latest innovations.

Their handleless kitchens can be fully customised with various trims, lighting, built-in appliances, and colour choices, ensuring a unique and personal touch that complements any property's style and room size.

We chose Ridgeway Interiors to supply and fit our new Hacker kitchen as several friends have had kitchens from them over the years and been very happy.

Jon was excellent at meeting our demands with the original design, using his professional expertise to advise us and suggest things we maybe had not thought of, many of which we loved and chose.

This included an innovative solution to an awkward space.

Keeping with a contemporary theme and within budget, which ultimately sold Ridgeway to us.

TRADITIONAL KITCHENS

Traditional Shaker kitchens are known for their clean lines, symmetrical design, and exceptional quality. Shaker-style kitchens continue to be a popular choice for both contemporary and traditional homes.

This style's beauty lies in its simplicity and practicality, which can easily be adapted to suit a variety of spaces, from grand open-plan kitchens to cosy, intimate settings.

We offer a wide range of Shaker designs, finishes, and door and handle options, allowing you to personalise your kitchen to reflect your unique style.

At the heart of our Shaker collection is versatility. Whether you prefer woodgrain, smooth matt, or gloss finishes, our kitchens can be tailored to match your aesthetic preferences, with the option for two-tone designs or bold contrasting colours.

With a focus on exceptional craftsmanship and attention to detail, we pride ourselves on delivering high-quality kitchens that blend traditional charm with modern innovation.

From start to finish it has been a great experience. We are delighted with our new kitchen in every way!

Ridgeway works as a real team and they are a pleasure to have in your home. I'm going to miss them!

Everyone is so friendly, respectful and professional. Attention to detail is incredible ...and believe me I'm fussy. From the first design meeting with Giorgio then with Darren, Brendon, Chris, Lionel and Martin and all the others it was a real team effort.

I thoroughly recommend Ridgeway for anyone wanting a stress free operation from concept to the finished result!

Thank you.
